STEWARDSHIP COUNCIL ANNOUNCES FIRST OF SIX PUBLIC INFORMATION MEETINGS FOR SELECT PG&E-OWNED WATERSHED LANDS

WHAT:

The Pacific Forest and Watershed Lands Stewardship Council (Stewardship Council) is pleased to announce its first of six upcoming public information meetings for select PG&E-owned watershed lands. The purpose of the public information meetings is to update participants on the Stewardship Council's land conservation program and to solicit input on the future stewardship of these watershed lands.

The first meeting concerns the following planning units within Shasta and Tehama counties:

- Battle Creek (Shasta/Tehama counties)
- Burney Gardens (Shasta County)
- Cow Creek (Shasta County)
- Iron Canyon Reservoir (Shasta County)
- Kilarc (Shasta County)
- Lake McCloud (Shasta County)
- Pit River (Shasta County)
- Tunnel Reservoir (Shasta County)

For more information on these watershed lands, including maps, please visit:

All interested members of the public are invited to attend and participate. For more information regarding the project, please contact Chantz Joyce, Regional Land Conservation Manager, at (530) 524-9263 or email cjoyce@stewardshipcouncil.org.

WHEN:

Thursday, March 24, 2011 | 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Millville Grange

22037 Old 44 Drive (corner of Deschutes Road and Old 44 Drive)

Palo Cedro, CA 96073

EDITORS:

Media interested in attending or covering these meetings should contact Allison Henderson, at (916) 441-3123, extension 301 or e-mail ahenderson@stewardshipcouncil.org.

About the Stewardship Council

The Stewardship Council is a private, non-profit foundation that is responsible for developing and implementing a land conservation plan for approximately 140,000 acres of PG&E-owned watershed lands.
